A GLORIOUS JOURNEY: The Domestic and Commemorative Timepieces after the founding of PRC

The year marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Communist Party of China (CPC). To celebrate this milestone, Macao Timepiece Museum has designed a large countdown timer based on a domestic clock made in 1971, which enables Macao residents and visitors to recall the glorious paths and moments of the CPC over the past one hundred years. The Museum has also co-organised the exhibition "A Glorious Journey: The Domestic and Commemorative Timepieces after the Founding of PRC" with Chen Rui Xiang Skill-master Workshop in Wenzhou. More than 50 commemorative timepieces - including desk clocks, wall clocks, alarm clocks, pocket watches, aviation clocks and watches - have been selected to bear witness to the hardships and spirit of modern China's construction. They carry the craftsmen's strong attachment to the homeland from the 1950s to the present.

The Macao Timepiece Museum comprises two floors, with four permanent exhibition areas - Contemporary Watches, Panerai, Antique Clocks and Antique Pocket Watches, and an interactive area. Visitors can appreciate timepieces from all around the world and learn about the history of Macao timepieces.

Tracy Choi and Simmy Cheong are both up-and-coming local female directors in Macao. Tracy Choi's debut feature "Sisterhood" (2017) won the "Audience Choice Award" in the first Macao International Film Festival and Awards. Simmy Cheong continued her film production study at the Golden Horse Film Academy and participated in the production of films including "Sisterhood" and "That Year I was 17". The exhibition showcases the short film works of these two talented directors and features a unique set of narrative still images, uncovering the essence of a story in a different form.

"Patterns of life" Porcelain Painting Art Exhibition

Porcelain painting artist Arlinda Frota has had her work displayed in approximately 100 collective or solo exhibitions worldwide. Her works are messages of friendship and respect for the people and cultures she admires. The artist's work has a quasi-mystical quality, which transcends the exotic appeal with the lure of art from different Asian countries. The exhibition shows more than 30 pieces of artwork, with the hope of fostering a deeper understanding of Portuguese and Asian cultures through the art of porcelain.
